FALL ORIENTATION
FOR FRESHMEN SLATED
FOR SEPT. 18-26 AT UM

MISSOULA--

The fall quarter orientation program for new and transfer freshmen will be held Sept. 18-26 at the University of Montana.

Mrs. Julie Betty, a UM Dean of Students' assistant who is in charge of the orientation program, said transfer freshmen are those who have fewer than 45 credits of college or university level work.

Those who have not already taken the American College Test (A.C.T.) will be required to do so beginning at 8 a.m. Sept. 18 in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The upcoming orientation program is the third such program held for the 1971-72 academic year. Two summer programs enabled new University students to register for classes and become acquainted with the Missoula campus earlier than usual. The summer programs were sponsored under the $100,000 Ford Foundation Venture Grant to UM.

University dormitories open on Sept. 18 for those who must take the A.C.T. test and on Sept. 19 for those not taking the test.

Freshmen and transfer freshmen will register on Sept. 21. Upperclassmen register on Sept. 22. Classes begin Sept. 23 on the Missoula campus.
